angels' arms

Angels' Arms is a community supported organization that provides a home and many resources to foster parents as they care for the most vulnerable children in St. Louis.

Angels' Arms does not receive any State/Federal/United Way funding

About Us...

Angels' Arms homes have been a safe haven to over 540 children since 2003.

Over 50% of the children in all Angels' Arms homes are part of a sibling group.

One in ten children in foster homes in St. Louis County and St. Charles County resides in an Angels' Arms home.

Angels' Arms has a 100% high school graduation rate. The national average for foster youth is 50%.

The Angels' Arms Life Launch program helps guide foster youth as they explore, prepare and transition from foster care to young adult life.
